

Time as a physical quantity is not running toward us but on the contrary, we, humans here on the Earth, are running alongside time dimension and thereby cutting off time intervals on it. In this way we observe time as if it would run toward us. Time dimension in 3+3 dimensional space-time is "in rest" and we are moving >along it<.

December 2004